Gauchos View Prospects For Field And Track

By EINAR LARSON

Bidding farewell to a highly successful basketball season Los Gauchos out at Narbonne High school are beginning to warm up for the popular-spring sports of track and baseball.

There are many outstanding prospects who will be out there fighting to bring Narbonne its third straight championship. In the dashes will be John Moffit, Bill Brown, Gene Lansford, Clyde Garrison are standouts. In the middle distances, John Tanner, Jack Ackerman, Frank Ackerman and Gene Gutlin.

In the hurdles, Corky Richardson, John Moffit, Vernon Moore, Kris Janicich are the fellas to watch. In the jumps Bill Brown, Vernon Moore, Bob Hilton, Herbert Jorritsma, David Downard, are holding the spotlight for the field events. Bill Kelly, Ralph Collins, Ed Bergeron and Kris Janicich.

Turning to the Bee team, there are so many out in this division that it would be hard to tell this early in the season who are the standouts although there are high hopes for a championship Bee squad.

Massie, Siedel Served Aboard USS Jason

Two Torrance veterans, Harold E. Massie, pharmacist's mate, first class, 1318 Engracia ave., and Edward A. Siedel, boatswain's mate, first class, 1403 W. 21st st., served on the USS Jason, now anchored off Pagoda Pier at Tsingtao, China, providing headquarters for the Senior Officer Present Afloat in this area.

The Jason, a repair ship, serviced ships of all types during and following the war. To speed the vital job of returning fighting ships to battle, she was stationed just behind the front lines at Furus Bay in the Solomons, Manus, and Ulithi before the surrender.

"Well done" commendations came to the Jason for her work on the USS Lexington and the USS Randolph, from Admiral W. F. Halsey and Fleet Admiral C. W. Nimitz.

LT. KERBER VISITS

Lt. (j.g.) Harold H. Kerber, U.S.N.R., in submarine service, arrived recently from San Francisco for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Kerber.

PHEASANTS RELEASED

Since the close of the 1945 pheasant hunting season in California 7165 pheasants have been released throughout the state.

Crusade For Christ Will Continue Here

The Crusade for Christ and the Church, conducted by the Opie Brothers, will continue through Wednesday, Feb. 13 in Central Evangelical Community church, according to the announcement of the Rev. H. Wesley Roloff, pastor of the local church.

Next week the three brothers, Billy, Earl and Jack, will be joined by another brother, Charles, who is now engaged in an evangelistic meeting in Oregon.

In addition to the regular preaching service, the boys present outstanding musical programs at each meeting. Saxophone, trombone and vocal arrangements are presented at every service.

Sound motion pictures have also been featured, making the Crusade an unusual approach for the reaching of the community in behalf of the church.

Central Church is located in Torrance at the corner of Marcellina and Arlington.

AT BENSTEAD HOME

Alfred J. Byk, chief commissary steward, U.S.N., and Mrs. Byk, the former Jane Benstead, arrived from San Francisco for several days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Benstead, here.

Landlords Balked In Efforts To Pull Out Rentals

Fifty-eight landlords who control 216 rental units and who had sought to withdraw them from the rental market today were mailed their answers by the Southern California OPA.

The answer was: "No!"

The landlords, most of whom were members of the Los Angeles Apartment House Association, had submitted their petitions for withdrawal of their units from the rental market last November and early in December with their reasons recorded simply as: "petition in good faith to remove this rental unit from the rental market for housing."

O'HANLON WINS WALTERIA SCHOOL BUILDING CONTRACT

With its bid of $9249, J. D. O'Hanlon was awarded the contract to construct one two-unit classroom bungalow at the Walteria school, at 24209 Ward st., Walteria. Dr. Vidling Kersey, superintendent of city schools, announced today.

Other bidders included: DeCamp-Hudson Co., Ltd., $9683; Harry Heirshberg, $10,400; and Royal Building Corporation, $9963.

LOCAL MEDICAL GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICES

Doctors Beeman, Easley, and Wood announce the return of Dr. Clifford E. Easley to private practice with the firm. Dr. Easley was for three years with the U.S. Navy, on active duty in the South Pacific as a lieutenant, and for the past six months was stationed at the Long Beach Naval hospital. Dr. Easley specialized in orthopedics and bone surgery while with the Navy, and will continue to major in that field in his private practice.

Due to the need of additional space, branch offices of Drs. Beeman, Easley and Wood have been opened at 1337 El Prado.

PLAN FOR VETS TO PICK THEIR OWN PHYSICIANS

Veterans may choose their own physicians for medical treatment as soon as Washington Veterans Administration officials outline the proper procedure, R. A. Bringham, manager of the West Los Angeles Veterans Hospital Center, announced yesterday.

"Under contract between the California Physicians Service and the Veterans Administration, it is anticipated that prior authorization of the V. A. before a vet can be treated will be waived," Bringham declared.

Torrance, at which location Dr. Easley will conduct his practice.

H-I-Y PLANNING VISITS TO LOCAL CHURCH SERVICES

Torrance H-I-Y is planning a weekly church visitation program that will take its members into the various churches of Torrance. First Baptist Church, Rev. C. M. Northrup, pastor, is to be host to the club Sunday, Feb. 10. It is the purpose of the program to acquaint members with the services of our local churches and stimulate interest, allegiance and affiliation to a church of one's choice, it is said. The H-I-Y is dedicated to Christian leadership and this program is one method of developing such leadership in the youth of Torrance.
